Wednesday, November 22, 1803.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

SINCE I last met you in Parliament it has been My chief Object to carry into Effect those Measures which your Wisdom had adopted for the Defence of the United Kingdom, and for the vigorous Prosecution of the War. In these Preparations I have been seconded by the voluntary Exertions of all Ranks of My People, in a Manner that has, if possible, strengthened their Claims to My Confidence and Affection: They have proved that the Menaces of the Enemy have only served to rouse their native and hereditary Spirit; and that all other Considerations are lost in a general Disposition to make those Efforts and Sacrifices which the Honor and Safety of the Kingdom demand at this important and critical Conjunction.

Though My Attention has principally been directed to the great Object of internal Security, no Opportunity has been lost of making an Impression on the foreign Possessions of the Enemy: The Islands of St. Lucia, of Tobago, of St. Pierre and Miquelon, and the Settlements of Demerara and Essequibo, have surrendered to the British Arms. In the Conduct of the Operations, by which these valuable Acquisitions have been made, the utmost Promptitude and Zeal have been displayed by the Officers employed on those Services, and by My Forces acting under their Command, by Sea and Land.

In Ireland, the Leaders, and several inferior Agents, in the late traitorous and atrocious Conspiracy, have been brought to Justice; and the public Tranquillity has experienced no further Interruption. I indulge the Hope, that such of My devoted Subjects as have swerved from their Allegiance are now convinced of their Error; and that, having compared the Advantages they derive from the Protection of a free Constitution with the Condition of those Countries which are under the Dominion of the French Government, they will cordially and zealously concur in resisting any Attempt that may be made against the Security and Independence of my United Kingdom.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have a perfect Reliance on your public Spirit for making such Provision as may be necessary for the Service of the Year. The progressive Improvement of the Revenue cannot fail to encourage you to persevere in the System which has been adopted, of defraying the Expences of the War, with as little Addition as possible to the Public Debt, and to the permanent Burthens of the State.

I lament the heavy Pressure, which, under the present Circumstances, must unavoidably be experienced by My People; but I am persuaded that they will meet it with the good Sense and Fortitude which so eminently distinguish their Character, under a Conviction of the indispensable Importance of upholding the Dignity, and of providing effectually for the Safety of the Empire.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have concluded a Convention with the King of Sweden, for the Purpose of adjusting all the Differences which have arisen on the Subject of the Eleventh Article of the Treaty of 1661. I have directed that a Copy of this Convention should be laid before you; and you will, I trust, be of Opinion that the Arrangement, whilst it upholds Our Maritime Rights, is founded on those Principles of reciprocal Advantage which are best calculated to maintain and improve the good Understanding which happily subsists between the Two Countries.

In the Prosecution of the Contest in which We are engaged it shall be, as it has ever been, My first Object to execute, as becomes Me, the great Trust committed to My Charge. Embarked with My brave and loyal People in One common Cause, it is My fixed Determination, if the Occasion should arise, to share their Exertions and their Dangers in the Defence of Our Constitution, Our Religion, Our Laws, and Independence. To the Activity and Valour of My Fleets and Armies, to the Zeal and unconquerable spirit of My faithful Subjects, I confide the Honor of My Crown, and all those valuable Interests which are involved in the Issue of this momentous Contest.

Actuated by these Sentiments, and humbly imploring the Blessing of Divine Providence, I look forward with a firm Conviction, that if, contrary to all just Expectation, the Enemy should elude the Vigilance of My numerous Fleets and Cruizers, and attempt to execute their presumptuous Threat of invading our Coasts, the Consequence will be to them, Discomfiture, Confusion, and Disgrace; and that Our's will not only be the Glory of surmounting present Difficulties, and repelling immediate Danger, but the solid and permanent Advantage of fixing the Safety and Independence of the Kingdom on the Basis of acknowledged Strength, the Result of its own tried Energy and Resources.

Admiralty-Office, November 24, 1803.

*Copy of a Letter from Sir James Saumarez, K. B.
Rear-Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Guernsey, the 19th Instant.*

SIR,

I BEG you will please to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that having detached His Majesty's Ship Poulette, on the breaking up of the late Gale of Wind, to watch the Enemy's Armaments on the French Coast, and to reconnoitre the Port of Cherbourg, Captain Dunbar had the good Fortune to fall in with a French Convoy of about Thirty Sail, escorted by a National Brig and other Armed Vessels, standing to the Eastward, the Whole of which were driven on the Rocks of Cape La Hague; Three of them were cut out by the Boats of the Poulette, assisted by the Liberty Brig, under a smart Fire from the Shore.

I herewith enclose Captain Dunbar's Letter, and cannot too highly commend the Zeal and good Conduct displayed by him, his Officers, and Men, on this Service, which has been effected without the Loss of a single Man.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JAMES SAUMAREZ.

*His Majesty's Ship Poulette, at Sea,
November 15, 1803.*

SIR,

AS I was passing the Island of Alderney this Morning, about a Quarter past Eleven, I came up with a Convoy belonging to the Enemy, consisting of about Thirty Sail, steering to the Eastward, escorted by several Armed Vessels, and in the Act of rounding Cape La Hague.

I have great Pleasure in acquainting you, that the Attack made on them by His Majesty's Ship under my Command was such as to compel their Crews to run them on the Rocks, where they became completely exposed to our Shot, as well as the Dangers incident to that Situation. It is impossible for me to describe sufficiently the Zeal and good Conduct of those under me: every Officer and Man volunteered their Services in the Boats, by which a Brig, a Luggie, and a Sloop, the latter made fast with her Cable to the Shore, were cut out under a smart Fire, while the Ship was carried, and anchored within Three Cables' Length of the Surf, to cover those engaged on this Enterprize. As the rest were left dry by the Tide, I am confident that several are totally lost. Those that fell into our Hands are new, and from having Sweeps on board, though not aimed, evidently intended to aid the Invasion. The Liberty took ashore, but the Moucheron could not get up in Time. I am most happy to add that not a Man was hurt, and the Loss of an Anchor is all that we experienced.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

J. DUNBAR.

Whitehall, November 20, 1803.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, between the Hours of One and Two o'Clock in the Morning of Sunday the 10th Ultimo, Three Men were discovered in the Act of setting Fire to the Warehouse of Mr. W. Wallis, of Birmingham, Merchant, by throwing lighted combustible Matter into the said Premises, which must have been entirely consumed thereby, if the atrocious Attempt had not been providentially discovered in Time to render the Exertions of the neighbouring Inhabitants effectual in extinguishing the Flames, before they had made any considerable Progress:—That the Three Persons aforesaid appeared to be young, and of middle Stature; Two of them dressed in dark coloured Clothes, and the other in a light coloured Coat; and that when they made their Escape they left a Ladder behind them, marked with the Name of "Mayne;"

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually deposited the combustible Matter in the Premises aforesaid) who shall discover One or more of his Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a farther Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted.) to be paid upon Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by the said Mr. W. Wallis.

Whitehall, November 23, 1803.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that Attempts have been made by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown, to set Fire to the Powder Magazine of the Lichfield Volunteers, by placing Gunpowder in a Stable adjoining thereto;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the Offenders who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

ERRATUM in the Gazette of the 15th Instant.

For Frederick Bever, Esq; to be Captain,

Read Frederick Beran, Esq; to be Captain in the West Norfolk Militia.

OFFICE of the COMMISSIONERS appointed by Act of Parliament under the Convention with the United States of America.

THE Board having considered the Arguments which have been urged in Support of Claims for Compound Interest, and Interest at the Rates established by Law in the Countries wherein the Debts in question were contracted, not only before the Period when, if no such lawful Impediments as are complained of had been suffered to exist, it might reasonably be held that the said Debts would respectively have been recovered, but for the Time subsequent to that Period;

RESOLVED, That in estimating, under the Convention, the Loss sustained by Claimants within the Description of the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity, the Board will in no Case allow Compound Interest for the Time subsequent to the Period when, if lawful Impediments had not existed, it might reasonably be held that the said Debts would respectively, as above-mentioned, have been recovered; and that they will not in any Case allow any higher Rate of Interest for the Time subsequent to that Period, than the Rate established by Law in the Country to which, from the Residence of the Creditor or other Circumstances, it may appear that the Amount of the Debt to recovered would have been remitted—the Terms of the Agreement between the Parties, whether expressed by special Contract, or implied from the established Usage of Trade, being the Rule to be observed in the Allowance of Interest, for the Time (whether of War or Peace) preceding the Period above-mentioned.

And the Board having also considered the essential Defects which occur in the greater Part of all the Claims before them, from the Omission to state (as former Notices required) such Circumstances respecting the Credit and Situation of Debtors at and subsequent to the Treaty of Peace, as may yet admit of Evidence, (in requiring and judging of which Evidence the Board will have due Regard to all Difficulties occasioned by Lapse of Time and other Circumstances,) and as may enable the Board on reasonable Grounds to infer, that, if the lawful Impediments complained of had not existed, the Debts in question would have been recovered;—

ORDERED, That such Defects be supplied by additional Statements as soon as possible: And that in every Instance where Claimants are unable to give any Account of the Credit or Situation of Debtors, as above-mentioned, they state the particular Enquiries they have made for the Purpose of obtaining the Information required, having it in view, that, in pursuance of the Powers conferred by the Act of Parliament, it may be thought expedient, in Aid of other Evidence, to call on all Claimants to make Answer, upon Oath, to such Interrogatories as may be put to them, not only respecting the Justice of their several Demands, but also the Truth (according to the best of their Knowledge and Belief) of all Facts and Circumstances set forth by them in Support of the same:

ORDERED, That due Notice be given of the above Resolution and Order; and that Intimation again be made, that the Time limited for the Reception of Claims will expire on the 1st Day of June next.

THO. MACDONALD.
HENRY PYE RICH.
J. GUILLEMARD.

Great Marlborough-Street, Nov. 24, 1803.

Whitehall, November 20, 1803.

*W*HEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, between the Hours of One and Two o'Clock in the Morning of Sunday the 10th Ultimo, Three Men were discovered in the Act of setting Fire to the Warehouse of Mr. W. Wallis, of Birmingham, Merchant, by throwing lighted combustible Matter into the said Premises, which must have been entirely consumed thereby, if the atrocious Attempt had not been providentially discovered in Time to render the Exertions of the neighbouring Inhabitants essential in extinguishing the Flames, before they had made any considerable Progress:—That the Three Persons aforesaid appeared to be young, and of middle Stature; Two of them dressed in dark coloured Clothes, and the other in a light coloured Coat; and that when they made their Escape they left a Tackler behind them, marked with the Name of "Mayne;"

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually disposed the combustible Matter in the Premises aforesaid) who shall discover One or more of his Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid upon Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by the said Mr. W. Wallis.

Whitehall, November 23, 1803.

P.S. I herewith enclose the Capitulation granted to the Colonies of Demerara and Essequibo, together with a Return of the Prisoners and Stores taken at these two Settlements, and at Berbice.

W. GRINFIELD.

Rt. Hon. Lord Hobart.

New Amsterdam, Berbice,

Sept. 25, 1803.

SIR,

AGREEABLE to your Orders of the 19th Instant, I proceeded with the Troops under my Command, and arrived off the River Berbice on the 23d Instant in the Morning, where the Ships of War and Transports came to Anchor; as it was from thence Captain Bland and myself agreed to send Brigade Major Armstrong and Lieutenant Pardoe, in a Flag of Truce, with a Summons to the Provisional Governments, the Naval and Military Commanders, to surrender the Colony of Berbice to His Majesty's Forces under our Command. The Flag of Truce returned early the next Morning, having on board a Committee of the Provisional Government, a Captain of Artillery, and a Lieutenant of the Batavian Navy, to treat for the Surrender of the Colony, which was done, and the Articles of Capitulation signed; but as the Commandant of the Batavian Troops would not sanction the Surrender, without consulting the Officers under his Command, it was agreed that the Netly Schooner, with the smallest of the Transports, should pass over the Bar, there anchor, and wait until the Flag of Truce returned from the Fort with the Commandant's Answer; which not arriving as soon as was expected, the Netly and the Transports got under weigh, and were proceeding to pass the Forts, when the Flag of Truce returned, with a Captain of Artillery, to signify the Commandant's Approval of the Terms, but requesting the British Troops might not land until this Day, which was complied with, and they remained on board the Vessels, at Anchor off the Town, until Noon this Day, when the Troops landed and took Possession of the Forts, &c.; and the Batavian Garrison, consisting of upwards of Six Hundred Men, were made Prisoners.

The steady and active Co-operation of Captain Bland and the Officers, Seamen, and Marines employed on this Service, demand my warmest Acknowledgments; and it is my Duty to report to you how much I am satisfied with the Zeal and active Exertions of Lieutenant-Colonel McCreagh of the 7th West India Regiment, and all the Officers and every Individual of all the Corps employed on this Service.

I am engaged in preparing the Returns of Ordnance and Stores of every Description found in the Enemy's Forts and Magazines, which I shall have the Honor of presenting to you on my Return to Demerara, which I expect will be in Three Days from this Date.

Herewith I enclose a Copy of the Summons and Articles of Capitulation, and have the Honor to remain, &c.

(Signed) ROB. NICHOLSON, Lieut.
Col. 11th Battalion Royals.

(A true Copy.) W. TATUM, Military Secretary.
Lieut. General Grinfield, Commander of the Forces, &c. &c. &c.

S U M M O N S.

*On board His Majesty's Ship Heureux, off
Berbice, 23d September 1803.*

By Captain Loftus Otway Bland, Commander of His Britannic Majesty's Ships, &c. &c. and Lieutenant-Colonel Robert Nicholson, Commander of His Britannic Majesty's Land Forces, &c. &c. under the Orders of their Excellencies Lieutenant General William Grinfield, and Commodore Samuel Hood, Commanders in Chief of His Majesty's Land and Sea Forces in the Windward and Leeward Charibbee Islands, &c. &c.

THESE are requiring you the Governor, and Court of Police, and Military and Naval Forces of the Colony of Berbice and its Dependencies, to surrender the said Colony to His Britannic Majesty's Forces under our Command, and to place the same under His Britannic Majesty's Government.

In which Case the Laws and Usages of the Colony shall remain in force and be respected, the Mode of Taxation now in Use be adhered to, and the Inhabitants shall enjoy the public Exercise of their Religion in the same Manner as heretofore; no new Establishments shall be introduced without the Consent of the Court of Police, as the Legislature of the Colony. The Public Officers, whether in the Civil Law or Church Establishment, as well as the Members of the respective Courts (except the Governor) shall be continued in their respective Offices and Situations until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be known, excepting those who may be attached to French Principles.

The Inhabitants, those who are at present in the Colony, as well as those who may be abroad, shall be protected in their Persons, and have the free Enjoyment of their Properties, without being troubled or molested for any Acts whatsoever, other than such as they might commit subsequent to the Capitulation, and in Violation of the Oath of Fidelity they shall be required to take.

The Sea and Land Forces of the Batavian Republic stationed in the Colony shall surrender themselves Prisoners of War, and proper Vessels will be provided at the Expence of His Britannic Majesty to convey them with the most convenient Speed to one of the Ports of the Batavian Republic; but they are not to bear Arms against Great Britain or her Allies, until regularly exchanged or released.

The Officers shall retain their Arms, and the whole of their Baggage; and the Non-commissioned Officers and Privates, their Baggage only.

With regard to the Military Forces, the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers and Privates of the same, may, if agreeably to themselves, enter into the British Service, and receive Pay, and every Advantage and Emolument enjoyed by those of the same Rank in His Britannic Majesty's Service.

Should these liberal Terms, which in fact extend to the Inhabitants of this Colony a free Participation in the great Advantages enjoyed by the Subjects of His Britannic Majesty, be refused, the Governor and Court of Police, and all concerned, must be answerable for the Consequences, as an immediate Attack will be made by the Land and Sea Forces, which will render every Resistance vain.

One Hour and no more, is given to the Governor, from the Delivery of this by Brigade Major Armstrong, and Lieutenant Fardoe, to accept or not.

(Signed) L. OTWAY BLAND.

ROBERT NICHOLSON, Lieut. Col.

SIR,

September 27, 1803.

It is with the greatest Satisfaction I have the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that, in Concurrence with Lieutenant-General Grinstead, the Troops for the Expedition to this valuable Colony were embarked at Barbadoes on the 21st of August, on board His Majesty's Ships Centaur, Chichester, and Alligator, and Brilliant Transport, with the Heureux and Netley; also several small Vessels having Military Stores, &c. We put to Sea the next Morning; but, from light baffling Winds, and a strong N. W. Current, we did not arrive to our Anchorage at the appointed Rendezvous, a few Leagues to Windward of the River, until the Evening of the 18th.

The Netley, Lieutenant Lawrence, was sent forward with Mr. Caley, a Gentleman well acquainted with the Coast, to endeavour to gain Information, and procure a Number of Colony Boats, calculated for our Service; and we had the good Fortune to find, by the Exertion and Attention of this Officer, with the very useful Services of the before-mentioned Gentleman, our Wishes were fulfilled, and twenty-four Boats ready, in three Fathoms Water, to receive the Troops.

The Moment we anchored, a Flag of Truce was dispatched to the Governor of Demerary and Essequibo, with a Summons, and Orders to wait one Hour only.

The Centaur and Chichester, not being able to approach nearer the Shore, the Troops were early the next Morning removed to the small Vessels, and all ready in the Evening, waiting the Event of the Flag, which, detained by strong Winds, did not return until the following Morning, with a Deputation from the Colony, when Terms were agreed on.

The Hornet, which was lying off the Bar, blockading the Port, entered the River in the Evening, with the Netley and a Body of Troops; when Possession was taken of Fort William Frederick, the Hippomenes, a Ship pierced for eighteen Guns, fourteen only mounted, belonging to the Batavian Republic; and the Colonies of Demerary and Essequibo, were given up to us the next Day at Twelve o'Clock.

The Governor not being able to treat for Berbice, our further Dispositions and Arrangements, on signing the Capitulation, were immediately made; and Captain Bland of the Heureux, with the Alligator and Netley, and Brilliant Transport, having on Board a Detachment of the Troops, under Lieutenant-Colonel Nicholson, and the Marines of the Squadron, were sent against Berbice, the Result of which I have the Honor to forward herewith; and am, Sir, &c.

SIR,

17th Sept. 1803.

THE Commanders in Chief of the Land and Sea Forces of His Britannic Majesty, being fully assured of their decided Superiority to the Force of the Batavian Republic, in these Colonies, and certain of being able to prevent Succours being thrown in, they consider themselves as authorized to require the immediate Surrender of the Colonies of Demerary, Essequibo, and Berbice, to the Forces under their Command. With the View, therefore, to prevent the necessary Effusion of Blood, or the Mischief which must ensue to the Colonies, should the Troops be under the necessity of making good the Landing, and the Ships to enforce a Passage, the Commanders in Chief have thought it right to trouble your Excellency with this Summons, and trusting, that from your Excellency's Regard for the Colonies, the Certainty of not being able to resist, and for the Preservation of Individual Property, you will have no Hesitation in acceding to the Terms herewith transmitted.

The Officers, who will have the Honor to deliver this to your Excellency, have Orders to wait one Hour for your answer.

We have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

GENTLEMEN,
I HAVE had the Honor to receive your Excellencies' Letter of Yesterday's Date, requiring the immediate Surrender of the Colonies of Essequibo, Demerary, and Berbice, on the Terms transmitted to me by your Excellencies.

In conformity to the Constitution of this Colony, I have laid your Letter before the Court of Police, and the Commanding Officers of the Sea and Land Forces, assembled in a Council of War.

But in respect to the Colonies of Essequibo and Demerary, under my Government, I, as well as the other Members of the combined Council of War, have thought it our Duty to propose some Terms of Capitulation, which we have framed on our Part, and to which we entreat your Excellencies' Consideration, as conceiving them best calculated for the Interest of these Colonies: The same will be laid before your Excellencies by a Committee from the Council of War, consisting of the Commandeur of Essequibo, Mr. Trotz, a Member of the Court of Police, Mr. Kroll, two Officers, and the Secretary of the Colony, which Gentlemen are to wait upon your Excellencies, and are fully authorized to conclude the Capitulation.*

SIR,

I HAVE the Pleasure to enclose you Copy of a Letter from Captain Bland, of His Majesty's Ship Heureux, giving an Account of the Surrender of the Colony of Berbice to the King's Forces; too much Praise cannot be given to that Officer and

Lieutenant-Colonel Nicholson, for their able and judicious Conduct.

I have also much Gratification in repeating the cordial good Understanding that has existed between the Land and Sea Forces, and whose unremitted Attention and Exertions on all Occasions by the Officers and Men, deserves the highest Approbation of their Superiors.

Captain Hunt, whose attentive Services I have constantly experienced, is the Bearer of this Dispatch, and will be able to give their Lordships any further Particulars.

SIR, Heureux, off Barbice, 26th September, 1803.

I AM happy to inform you, that His Majesty's Forces are in Possession of the valuable Colony of Berbice; to give you the first Information, I dispatched Major Crozier, of the Marines, by Land, whose Party I landed at the Desire of Lieutenant-Colonel Nicholson.—The Provisional Government and Court of Police, sent off their Deputies to answer the Summons sent them to surrender, and agreed to the Capitulation, which I enclose with the Summons.*

The Garrison thought proper not to join, nor did they give an Answer, till we arrived with the British Land and Sea Forces, nearly within Gun-Shot of their Works: seeing we were determined, a Boat was hurried off to inform us they would surrender, if we would wait till next Day, which was agreed to, on our being allowed to go into the Harbour that Night, and take Possession of the Shipping, which consists of a very fine National Schooner, the Serpent, and several large Merchant Ships.

From the vigorous Exertions and Animation of all, and the Dispositions made by the Lieutenant Colonel, I have not a doubt every Thing must have fallen in a Storm.

I am, Sir, most respectfully,

Your obedient, humble Servant,

LOFTUS OTWAY BLAND.

His Majesty's Sloop Atalante, Quiberon Bay, October 10, 1803.

SIR,

IBEG Leave to inform you, in Obedience to your Signal to chase last Evening, that Part of the Convoy, consisting of Two Ketches, and One Brig, that were running under the Point of St. Guildas, I tracked and stood after them in the Sloop I command, and obliged them to run on Shore off the Mouth of the River of Penner, and having considered it very possible to cut them out in the Night, as the Wind was directly off Shore, I dispatched Lieutenant Hawkins, in the Six-masted Cutter, and

Mr. Richard Burdall, Master, in the Five-oared Cutter, armed, on that Service after it became dark, and flood in with the Brig, as near as I could go for the Shoal, to protect them. About half-past Nine, P. M. the Boats got up to the above Vessels, when Lieutenant Hawkins boarded, and took Possession of the In-Shore Vessel, but found her aground, a Number of Troops along the Beach keeping up a heavy Fire of Musketry on his Boat, assisted by Two Field-Pieces, and a Party of Troops on board the other Two Vessels (previously embarked from the Shore). After cutting her Cable, and firing a considerable Time on the other Vessel near him, found it impossible to do any Thing with her, and very properly left her to go to the Assistance of the other Boat, who had by this Time boarded the Brig, in Defence of a Party of Ten or Twelve Soldiers, with their Muskets and Sabres, killed Six of the Troops, hove Two overboard, and drove the Rest with the Crew below. After cutting her Cable, finding she was aground, and a light Vessel, they returned with both Boats on board, not thinking proper, from Motives of Humanity, to set her on Fire, as several People were heard below, supposed to be wounded.

I am exceedingly sorry to inform you, on the first Fire of the Soldiers, One of our Men, Henry Brennan, Sail Maker, was killed, and in boarding Two Seamen wounded, but are in a fair Way of recovering. When it is considered that Mr. Burdall, the Master, the Sergeant of Marines, and Five other Men boarded this Vessel, with Ten Soldiers on Deck with charged Bayonets, and performed what they did, I trust you will see and admire with me the very resolute and gallant Conduct of Mr. Burdall, and the Six brave Fellows with him; indeed the Officers and Crews in both Boats deserve the highest Praise, though unfortunately out of their Power to bring the Vessels off, all Three being fast aground within a half a Cable's Length of the Beach, and the Shore covered with Troops, keeping an incessant Fire with their Muskets and the Two Field-Pieces on them. I had the Pleasure to see the Brig lying on a Ridge of Rocks this Morning, apparently bilged.

I am, &c. JNO. MASEFIELD.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of May last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of June then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of March last, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen, who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamation for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward hath, by Order in Council, been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant December; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant December to the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and four inclusive; whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly. *W. The Lord Chancellor has appointed Henry Enfield, of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary of the High Court of Chancery.

Admiralty-Office, December 10, 1803.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received at this Office, from Rear-Admiral Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica :

*Shark, Port Royal, Jamaica,
Sept. 29, 1803.*

SIR,
THEIR Lordships will observe from Captain Walker's Letter enclosed, that he was induced, when in the Bight of Leogane, to proceed off St. Mark's, and take the French Garrison on board, correspondent to Capitulation.

I am, &c. J. T. DUCKWORTH.
Sir Evan Nepean, Bart.

*Vanguard, off Cape Nicola Mole,
September 9, 1803.*

SIR,
UNDERSTANDING from General Desflaines that it was his Intention to summon the Town of St. Marc immediately, which was reduced to the last Extremity, I was strongly induced to urge him not to put the Garrison to Death, which he consented to, and I stipulated with him, that, if they surrendered, he should march them round to the Mole in Safety, and that I should appear off the Bay, and take Possession of the Shipping, One of which I knew to be a Ship of War.

I received General Desflaine's Dispatches about Eight o'Clock at Night of the 31st of October, and got under Weigh at One A. M. At Daylight we chased a Man of War Brig off St. Marc, but the Wind being light and partial she got into that Place. In the Afternoon we perceived a Flag of Truce coming out, but a heavy Squall of Wind and Rain obliged them to return. The following Morning they came on board, and brought a Letter from General D'Henin, which I answered by making several distinct Propositions, and sent them in the Ship's Boat as a Flag of Truce, with an Officer, and Mr. Clithcart had the Goodness to take Charge of them: About Five o'Clock the same Day the General himself came on board in the Boat, and we agreed to a Convention: The next Day and Part of the Night we were busily employed in effecting the Embarkation of the Garrison, &c. and the Whole being completed, General D'Henin and his Staff came on board the Vanguard at Three o'Clock in the Morning of the 4th, and we made Sail out of the Bay.—The Situation of this Garrison was the most deplorable it is possible to imagine; they were literally reduced to nothing, and long subsisted on Horse-flesh. I forgot to mention that, on the 1st, we captured the same Schooner we had taken on the 26th past, with Twenty-five Barrels of Flour, going to St. Marc, which I took out, and transferring her People, with Fifteen Soldiers she had on board, to a small Sloop we took at the same Time, sent her away, and kept the Schooner, as she might be eventually useful to us; and she is the Vessel I have made over to General D'Henin.

The Vessels delivered to us consist of the Papillon Corvette, pierced for Twelve Guns, but only mounting Six, having Fifty-two Men on board, commanded by Mons. Dubourg, Lieutenant du Vaisseau; the Brig Les Trois Amis, Transport, nothing in; and the Schooner Mary Sally, who has between Forty and Fifty Barrels of Powder. General D'Henin has given me regular Receipts for the Garrison, which amounts in all to Eight Hundred and Fifty Men.

I have farther to inform you, Sir, that on the 5th we captured the National Schooner Le Courier de Nantes, of Two Guns and Four Swivels, and Fifteen Men, commanded by an Ensign de Vaisseau, from Port au Prince, with a Supply of Thirty Barrels of Flour, and sundry other Articles for St. Marc.

I enclose a Weekly Account; and have great Satisfaction in stating, that we are almost well again, not one of the Men who came from the Hospital has died.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JAS. WALKER.
Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Rear-Admiral of the Red, and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

*Shark, Port Royal, Jamaica,
September 29, 1803.*

SIR,
HIS Majesty's Sloop Pelican having been employed these Eight Weeks in watching the Port of Aux Cayes, Captain Whitby writes me, on the 21st Instant, that the General of Division Brunette, had sent off Brigadier-General Le Fevre to propose taking off this Garrison, but as it appeared that the Numbers are beyond what the Vessels in the Harbour, with the Assistance of the Pelican, could effect, Captain Whitby, (of whose Affiduity I cannot speak too highly,) agreed on an Armistice of Ten Days to communicate with me, and though I had in some Degree anticipated the Want by sending the Pique on that Service, I have in consequence added the Thefeus, and am in Expectation, that before the failing of this Packet, I shall have to request that in Addition to this, you will communicate to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty the Capitulation of the Garrison.

I am, &c. J. T. DUCKWORTH.
Sir Evan Nepean, Bart.

*Shark, Port Royal, Jamaica,
September 30, 1803.*

SIR,
CAPTAIN BLIGH, whose Merits as an Officer are always conspicuous, having, during the Time he was Senior Officer at the Blockade of the Cape, thought it for the good of the Service to attack Port Dauphin; I send you herewith his Statement of the Success, and the Capture of La Sageffe, of Twenty Eight-Pounders on her Main Deck, and Eight Four-Pounders on the Quarter-Deck.

I am, &c. J. T. DUCKWORTH.
Sir Evan Nepean, Bart.

*Thefeus, Port Dauphin, St. Domingo,
September 8, 1803.*

SIR,
HAVING found extreme Difficulty in preventing small Vessels from passing into Cape François with Provisions from the little Ports on the Northern Part of the Island, in consequence of their finding a safe Retreat from our Pursuit under the Batteries of Port Dauphin, and conceiving that Port to be of the utmost Importance to the Enemy, I deemed it necessary to make some Efforts for the Reduction of the Place, and the Capture of a Ship of War at anchor there. As soon as the Sea-breeze this Morning rendered it impossible for the Enemy's Frigates to leave their Anchorage, I proceeded to Mauchermel Bay, leaving the Hercule and Cumberland on their Station.

The Water being sufficiently deep to allow me to place the Ship within Musket Shot of Port La-bouque, situated at the Entrance of the Harbour, our Fire was so well directed, that it was impossible for the Guns of the Battery to be pointed with any Precision, the Colours of which were struck in less than Half an Hour. Another Fort in the Harbour and the Ship being the next Objects of our Attention, the Thefeus entered the Port with the Assistance of the Boats, and having fired a few Shot at the Ship of War, she hauled her Colours down, and proved to be La Sageffe, mounting Twenty Eight-Pounders on the Main-Deck, and Eight Four-Pounders on the Quarter-Deck and Fore-Castle, commanded by Lieutenant J. B. Baruteche, and having only Seventy-five Men on board.

The Commandant conceiving the Place no longer tenable after the Loss of the Ship, and being under some Apprehensions of being exposed to the Rage of the Blacks, whom he considered as a merciless Enemy, claimed British Protection, and surrendered the Fort and Garrison at Discretion. Having spiked the Guns, and destroyed the Ammunition, the Garrison and Inhabitants, many of whom were sickly, were embarked and landed under a Flag of Truce at Cape François. Being informed by the Prisoners that their General Dumont and his Suit had lately fallen into the Hands of the Blacks, and that they were in the most imminent Danger, I was induced, from Motives of Humanity, to solicit their Freedom from the Chief of those People; and I had the Satisfaction of having my Request immediately complied with: They accompanied the Rest of the Prisoners into Cape François.

I am &c. JOHN BLIGH.
Rear-Admiral Sir J. T. Duckworth, K. B.
Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

St. James's, December 7, 1803.

THE following Address having been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Managers and Trustees of Anderson's Institution.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Managers and Trustees of Anderson's Institution, incorporated by Charter in the City of Glasgow, as a Seminary for the Cultivation of Arts and Sciences, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

At a Period so deeply interesting to every Briton, a Period when an insulgent and ambitious Foe threatens to overthrow the British Empire, with our brave Countrymen we feel indignant, and will be found their Associates in Arms, to repel and chastise the Aggressor, to support your Majesty's Throne, and to preserve inviolate the Liberties we enjoy under our excellent Constitution.

While the Students, who attend this Seminary, are instructed in Arts and Sciences, the Professors will not fail to inculcate on their Minds Loyalty to their King, Love to their Country, and Submission to the Laws.

It is our earnest Prayer that the Supreme Disposer of Events may crown with complete Success your Majesty's decisive and dignified Measures for the Defence and Security of this great Realm, that the Calamities of so just a War may be softened by the Success and Glory of its Achievements; and that your Majesty may long reign over a happy, loyal, and independent People.

Sealed in our Hall with the Seal of the Institution, and signed in our Name, by John Geddis, President.

Glasgow, Sept. 21, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary of State.]

Admiralty-Office, December 27, 1803.Copy of a Letter from Mr. Gunthorpe, Commander of the Cutter Excise Cutter, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated the 12th Instant.

SIR,

I Beg Leave to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lord's Commissioners of the Admiralty, that being in Lowestoffe Roads Yesterday Afternoon with the Cutter under my Command, I received Intelligence from the Commander of His Majesty's Gun-Brig Confor, that he had seen a Privateer in the Offing in the Act of Boarding a Vessel: in consequence of which Information I immediately weighed, and went in Pursuit of her; and at Eleven this Morning captured, after a Chase of Three Hours, (during which Time she had nearly escaped, owing to a very thick Fog coming on.) Le Vigilant French Cutter Privateer, burthen about Fifty Tons, belonging to Dunkirk, Citizen Jean Winner Vanderwalle, Commander, manned with Thirty-five Men, and had only One Swedish on board, besides small Arms. She failed from Ostend Yesterday Morning, and had not taken any Thing.

I have the Honor to be, Sir,

M. GUNTHORPE.

Admiralty-Office, December 16, 1803.

Notice is hereby given, that Information has been received at this Office, that the Anna, whereof Jacob Freytag was Master, belonging to Petersburg, laden with Hemp and Iron, was, on or about the 9th Instant, stranded on a Sand about Four Miles below Lynn Roads. EVAN NEPEAN

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

TRANSLATION of a Publication by which the Royal Department of Customs at Copenhagen informs all Navigators, that from the 1st Day of January 1804, a new Light House will be lighted at a Place called Agnes Pynten, near Drontheim in Norway.

FOR the Safety of Vessels sailing to or from Drontheim, a Light-House, with Lanthorns, has been erected upon Agnes Pynten, which will in future remain lighted every Year from the 1st of September to the 15th of April inclusive, from Half an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise.—It will be lighted for the first Time on the 1st January 1804.

This Lantern having a Circle round it painted Red, is plac'd on the Northernmost Point of Agnes Pynten, at an Elevation of about Sixty Feet from the Surface of the Water, a little to the Eastward of the small Bay, where the Farm named d' Agnes is situated, and at not more than Six Hundred Ells Distance from the said Farm.

Ring-pian, the most dangerous Rock to the Eastward of Agnes Pynten, is about Two Hundred Fathoms to the E. half S. of the Light. And Grasf-pian, or the Rock to the Westward of Agnes Pynten, is situated, as also the Church of Oeland, to the N. and by W. of the Light, at precisely Three Hundred and Sixty Ells from it.

The Island of Garten is to the W. N. W. and the Seigneurial Land of Ostheraad to the N. N. E. of the Light.

So that Vessels coming from the Westward, and making for Bronthelm, have the Island of Garten on their North, and are certain of seeing the Light-House of Agnes, and may then steer their Course for the Entrance until the Light-House is on their South by the Compass, when they are to tack towards the Light, and sail direct for Land until within Thirty Fathoms of it;—they must then keep along Shore in order to pass with Safety the Ring-pian or Rock to the Eastward, which is situated at from One Hundred and Twenty to One Hundred and Thirty Fathoms to the N. E. half E. from the North of the Point.

Vessels sailing from East to West may, when the Light House is upon their West half South, safely tack, and pursue a straight Course.

When the Wind is contrary and Vessels are in Sight of the Light-House, (so long as the Weather will permit their sailing, and that the Fog or Snow do not prevent them from seeing the Light-House,) they may fail, on tacking to and fro, in perfect Safety till Daylight appears.

Given at the Royal Council of Customs, at Copenhagen, the 15th November 1803.

[Here follow the Signatures.]

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

TRANSLATION of a Publication by which the Royal Department of Customs at Copenhagen informs all Navigators, that from the 1st Day of January 1804, a new Light House will be lighted at a Place called Agnes Pynten, near Drontheim in Norway.

FOR the Safety of Vessels sailing to or from Drontheim, a Light-House, with Lanthorns, has been erected upon Agnes Pynten, which will in future remain lighted every Year from the 1st of September to the 15th of April inclusive, from Half an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise:—It will be lighted for the first Time on the 1st January 1804.

This Lanthorn having a Circle round it painted Red, is placed on the Northernmost Point of Agnes Pynten, at an Elevation of about Sixty Feet from the Surface of the Water, a little to the Eastward of the small Bay, where the Farm named d'Agnes is situated, and at not more than Six Hundred Ells Distance from the said Farm.

Ringfluen, the most dangerous Rock to the Eastward of Agnes Pynten, is about Two Hundred Fathoms to the E. half S. of the Light. And Graef-fluen, or the Rock to the Westward of Agnes Pynten, is situated, as also the Church of Oeland to the N. and by W. of the Light, at precisely Three Hundred and Sixty Ells from it.

The Island of Garten is to the W. N. W. and the Seigneurial Land of Oeflervaad to the N. N. E. of the Light.

So that Vessels coming from the Westward, and making for Drontheim, have the Island of Garten on their North, and are certain of seeing the Light-House of Agnes, and may then steer their Course for the Entrance until the Light-House is on their South by the Compass, when they are to tack towards the Light, and sail direct for Land until within Thirty Fathoms of it;—they must then keep along Shore in order to pass with Safety the Ring-fluen or Rock to the Eastward, which is situated at from One Hundred and Twenty to One Hundred and Thirty Fathoms to the N. E. half E. from the North of the Point.

Vessels sailing from East to West may, when the Light House is upon their West half South, safely tack, and pursue a straight Course.

When the Wind is contrary and Vessels are in Sight of the Light-House, (so long as the Weather will permit their sailing, and that the Fog or Snow do not prevent them from seeing the Light-House,) they may fail, on tacking to and fro, in perfect Safety till Daylight appears.

Given at the Royal Council of Customs, at Copenhagen, the 15th November 1803.

LISKEARD ELECTION PETITION.

JOSEPH CHILDS, of Liskeard, in the County of Cornwall, Gentleman, having this Day presented his Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth,

That your Petitioner is an Inhabitant of the Borough of Liskeard, in the County of Cornwall, paying, or liable to pay, Seat and Lot there: That on the Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and two, an Election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Liskeard was duly had: That, at the said Election, the Honorable John Eliot and the Honorable William Eliot, Thomas Sheridan, Esq; and William Ogilvie, Esq; were Candidates to serve in Parliament for the said Borough: That the Returning Officer of the said Borough afterwards, upon the said Election, returned that the said John Eliot and William Eliot were duly elected to serve in Parliament for the said Borough: That, against the said Return, Two Petitions were afterwards duly presented to this Honorable House, one on the Part of certain Inhabitants of the said Borough, the other on the Part of the said Thomas Sheridan, Esq; and William Ogilvie, Esq; complaining of the said Return: That thereupon a Select Committee of this Honorable House was afterwards duly struck, and sworn well and truly to try the Matters of the said Petitions; and which said Select Committee, on the Twenty-sixth Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, duly met for the Purpose of trying and determining the same: That it appeared to the said Select Committee on the Hearing and Trial of the said Petitions, that the Merits of the said Petitions did depend on the Right of Election, therefore the said Committee did require the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements in Writing of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended: That, in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the Petitioners, Thomas Sheridan, Esq; and William Ogilvie, Esq; and also for the other Petitioners before-mentioned, delivered in a Statement, stating the Right of Election for Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough, to be in the Inhabitants paying, or liable to pay, Seat and Lot: That the Counsel for the Sitting Members, the Honorable John Eliot and William Eliot, delivered in a Statement, stating that the Right of Election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough, was in the Mayor and Burgesses of the said Borough: That afterwards, namely, on or about the Ninth Day of March, the said Select Committee did determine, that the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement of the said Petitioners, was not the Right of Election for the Borough of Liskeard, in the County of Cornwall: That, upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Sitting Members, the Select Committee did determine, that the Right of Election, as set forth in that Statement, was the Right of Election for the said Borough of Liskeard, which said Resolutions or Determinations were afterwards, on the Tenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, duly reported to this Honorable House, and by this Honorable House ordered to be entered in the Journals thereof:

That your Petitioner, with all Deference to the said Determinations of the said Select Committee, humbly conceives that the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Sitting Members, and as determined by the said Select Committee as aforesaid, is not the Right of Election for the said Borough of Liskeard, but that the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement delivered in by the Council for the said Thomas Sheridan, Esq; and William Ogilvie, Esq; and for the several other Petitioners before-mentioned, is the legal Right of Election for Burgesses to serve in the said Borough:

Your Petitioner therefore humbly prays that this Honorable House will admit him as a Party to oppose that Right of Election that has been deemed valid in the Judgment of the said Select Committee as aforesaid; and that this Honorable House will appoint as early a Day as possible to take the Premises into Consideration, and grant him such other Relief as to this Honorable House shall seem meet. &c.

I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Tuesday the Tenth Day of April next at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said Petition into Consideration.

Given under my Hand this Twentieth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and three. CHARLES ABBOT, Speaker.

LISKEARD ELECTION PETITION.

SEVERAL Persons whose Names are thereunto subscribed, Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Liskeard, in the County of Cornwall, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth:

That at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in this present Parliament, for the Borough of Liskeard, in the County of Cornwall, held on or about the Sixth July One thousand eight hundred and two, the Honorable John Eliot, the Honorable William Eliot, Thomas Sheridan and William Ogilvie, Esqrs. were Candidates:

That the Mayor who acted as Returning Officer, returned the said Honorable John Eliot and the said Honorable William Eliot, as duly elected to serve in Parliament as Burgesses for the said Borough of Liskeard: Against which Return Two Petitions were presented to this Honorable House, one on Behalf of the said Thomas Sheridan and William Ogilvie, Esqrs. and one on Behalf of several Persons, whose Names were thereunto subscribed, Inhabitants Householders of the said Borough of Liskeard, paying, or liable to pay, Scot and Lot, stating, amongst other Things, that the said Thomas Sheridan and William Ogilvie ought to have been duly elected to serve as Burgesses in Parliament for the said Borough, they having a Majority of legal Votes:

That on Friday the Twenty-fifth Day of February last, a Select Committee of this Honorable House was appointed to try the Merits of the said Petition:

That the said Committee, on the Hearing of the said Petitions, required the Parties to deliver in separate Statements of the several Rights of Election for the said Borough for which they respectively contended:

That the Statement delivered in by the Petitioners to Parliament, before the said Committee, stated the Right of Election in the said Borough of Liskeard to be in the Inhabitants paying, or liable to pay, Scot and Lot:

That the Statement delivered in by the Sitting Members, stated the Right of Election to be in the Mayor and Burgesses of the said Borough of Liskeard:

That the said Committee, after having heard the Evidence adduced by the said several Parties in Proof of the Right of Election so stated to the said Committee as aforesaid, determined, That the Right of Election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough of Liskeard, was not in the Inhabitants paying, or liable to pay, Scot and Lot; the said Committee also determined, that the Right of Election for Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough of Liskeard, was in the Mayor and Burgesses of the said Borough, and the said Petitioners were accordingly reported by the said Select Committee to this Honorable House.

Your Petitioners therefore being advised, that the said Resolutions and Determinations of the said Select Committee of this Honorable House on the said Right of Election is contrary to Law, do humbly pray that they may be admitted as Parties to oppose that Right of Election, which has been deemed valid in the Judgment of the said Committee as aforesaid, and to support and establish the said Right of Election for which they contended before the said Select Committee, and which was negatived by the said Select Committee of this Honorable House, or such other Right as shall be consistent with Law; and that such Relief may be granted them as the Justice of the Case may seem to require:

I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Tuesday the Tenth Day of April next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said Petition into Consideration.

Given under my Hand this Twentieth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and three. CHARLES ABBOT, Speaker.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

TRANSLATION of a Publication by which the Royal Department of Customs at Copenhagen informs all Navigators, that from the 1st Day of January 1804, a new Light House will be lighted at a Place called Agnes Pynten, near Drantheim in Norway.

FOR the Safety of Vessels failing to or from Drantheim, a Light-House, with Lanthorns, has been erected upon Agnes Pynten, which will in future remain lighted every Year from the 1st of September to the 15th of April inclusive, from Half an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise:—It will be lighted for the first Time on the 1st January 1804.

This Lanthorn having a Circle round it painted Red, is placed on the Northernmost Point of Agnes Pynten, at an Elevation of about Sixty Feet from the Surface of the Water, a little to the Eastward of the small Bay, where the Farm named d'Agnes is situated, and at not more than Six Hundred Ells Distance from the said Farm.

Ringfluen, the most dangerous Rock to the Eastward of Agnes Pynten, is about Two Hundred Fathoms to the E. half S. of the Light. And Graafsluen, or the Rock to the Westward of Agnes Pynten, is situated, as also the Church of Oeland, to the N. and by W. of the Light, at precisely Three Hundred and Sixty Ells from it.

The Island of Garten is to the W. N. W. and the Seigniorial Land of Oefterraad to the N. N. E. of the Light.

So that Vessels coming from the Westward, and making for Drontheim, have the Island of Garten on their North, and are certain of seeing the Light-House of Agox, and may then steer their Course for the Entrance until the Light-House is on their South by the Compass, when they are to tack towards the Light, and sail direct for Land until within Thirty Fathoms of it;—they must then keep along Shore in order to pass with Safety the Ring-fuon or Rock to the Eastward, which is situated at from One Hundred and Twenty to One Hundred and Thirty Fathoms to the N. E. half E. from the North of the Point.

Vessels sailing from East to West may, when the Light-House is upon their West half South, safely tack, and pursue a straight Course.

When the Wind is contrary and Vessels are in Sight of the Light-House, (so long as the Weather will permit their sailing, and that the Fog or Snow do not prevent them from seeing the Light-House,) they may sail, on tacking to and fro, in perfect Safety till Daylight appears.

Given at the Royal Council of Customs, at Copenhagen, the 15th November 1803.

SIR,

I ENCLOSE, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter which I have received from Lieutenant Young, commanding His Majesty's Hired Lugger Speculator, acquainting me of his having attacked and driven Shore Four of the Enemy's Gun-Boats, with Troops on board, apparently proceeding from Dunkirk to Calais.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

KEITH.

*Speculator, in the Dorons,
December 23, 1803.*

MY LORD,
I BEG Leave to inform you, in cruising in His Majesty's Armed Lugger Speculator, under my Command, and by the Directions of Captain Stewart to cruise off Dunkirk, the Morning of the 19th Instant, Gravelines then bearing East by South, Distance Four or Five Miles, I saw Four Gun-Boats full of Troops, running along Shore, which I supposed bound to Calais, at Ten A. M. I got very close to them, and at Half past Ten I had the Satisfaction to drive all Four of them on Shore, although the Enemy opened a Fire from Six long Four-Pounders on the Shore; Two of the Gun-Boats must have been wrecked, as the Sea made a Break over them, the other Two got off, as I supposed; I am happy to say they never hulled us.

I am, &c. ROB. YOUNG.

Right Hon. Lord Keith, K. B.

The Honorable Admiral Cornwallis has transmitted to this Office a Letter from Captain Winthrop, of His Majesty's Ship the Ardent, to Captain Sir Edward Pellew, of the Tonnant, dated 29th November 1803, of which the following is a Copy:

SIR,

THE Ship chased from the Squadron Yesterday by His Majesty's Ship under my Command, I closed with off Cape Finisterre, so near as to be able to give her a few Shot, and should have been alongside of her in a few Minutes had not the Wind headed me off Shore, which enabled her to double the Cape, and get into Finisterre-Bay, where she ran on Shore; from Apprehension of our sending to take Possession of her, and at Midnight blew up.

She proved to be the Bayonnaise French National Frigate, of Thirty-two Guns and Two Hundred Men, from the Havannah bound to Ferrol.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
